Ementa original não pode ser alterada (disciplinas obrigatórias) This course focuses on three major chronological periods: the Stuart Dynasty, the English Civil War, and the Restoration. Within these time frames, which divide the century roughly as 1603-1642; 1642-1660; and 1660-1700, we will follow the massive shifts in English literature over the course of one hundred years: from bloody revenge tragedy and fevered political and scientific thinking through epic works seeking to "justify the ways of God to man" to cavalier poetry in search of illicit rendezvous. There is no single seventeenth century; this class explores instead the multitude of experiences and transformations that pushed Britain from the Renaissance into the Enlightenment and Empire.
